

"When You See a Negro Doll

In the arms of a Negro girl, then You know that the child is being taught a lesson in race pride and race development which will not result in race suicide."--Henry Allen Boyd.

This Picture shows a Doll as they are shipped to the trade. The features, the hair and the appearance of the toy endear them to the children--NO DOLLS SOLD DRESSED.

SMYRNA NOTES.

Mr. Rufus Frierson, who works at the New Shops at Nashville, brought two of his friends home with him Sunday; their names were Messrs. Obie King and Edward Fitzpatrick. Mrs. A. L. Petty has gone to Nashville visiting her son, R. L. Perry, and his wife. Mesdames Edna and Melissa Drennon entertained at dinner Sunday their pastor, Rev. Cumby, and Rev. Watson, of Silver Springs. Mr. Pleas Jordan had a painful accident. He was cutting wood when a chip flew up and struck him in the eye. The fire excitement about two weeks ago has caused a yell of fire every time a chimney burns out. The following persons are dear lovers of the Globe and look for it every week. Mesdames Lucinda Thompson, Edna Drennon, Lucinda Jordan, Susan Gooch and Miss Sallie L. Battle. Miss Battle is quite a good seamstress. Hog killing is about over and everybody is getting ready for the holidays. One of Mr. Walter Baker's children died Monday. Mr. Handy Hibbit, from Nashville, visited friends and relatives here Sunday. Mr. A. B. Drennon is some better. Mrs. Lillie B. Cartwright says she would not be without the Globe; she likes to read it.

CLIFTON NOTES.

Christmas is quickly approaching and we are just about ready for it as we always are, for it always comes before we get ready for it, notwithstanding we are doing all we can to meet it. Rev. A. T. Cooper preached at the Bend last Saturday to an appreciative congregation. Rev. Duvel preached at St. James M. E. Church, of which he is pastor, at 11 a. m., and at Mt. Tabor Baptist Church at 3 p. m. Rev. Womney, pastor of the Baptist church, who has been over here since the Executive Board adjourned, preached for his people morning and night Sunday and left Monday night for his home in Savannah. Rev. Duvel's wife will be here to stay with us until the 19th. Mrs. Ida Jones needs many compliments for the nice improvement she is having made on her new building by N. C. Jackson and A. T. Cooper. The Leap Year entertainment given at the A. M. E. church last Friday night was a success financially. Mrs. Elizabeth Bogans is able to be on the streets Monday, having recovered from her illness of slow fever. Channy Morris has been spending a few days with her sister, Bettie Spears, but has returned home. Several of the Waynesboro people were here last week. Mr. Isaac Burrell, Dick Robertson and Rev. W. J. Young are indisposed.

FAYETTEVILLE NOTES.

Mrs. Wm. Commons, wife of Wm. Commons, departed this life December 14th at 8 p. m. She was a member of St. Paul A. M. E. Church, 35 years old and a member of the Ruthite Lodge No. 434. Funeral services were conducted at St. Paul A. M. E. Church Sunday evening at 2 o'clock by Rev. E. P. Ellis, pastor, assisted by Revs. R. K. Kennedy, pastor of the First Baptist Church, and Rev. F. J. Fletcher, pastor of the C. P.

Church. She leaves a husband, two sons, sisters, brothers and a host of friends. She was laid to rest in Rose Hill Cemetery. Prof. J. W. Beasley, principal of the City High School, will close school Friday, December 20th, and will take his departure for his home in Nashville, Tenn. We predict for him an enjoyable Christmas. Miss Mattie B. Fowler returned from Memphis after a long visit to her sister, Mrs. Felix Edmonson, and her brother, Mr. Julius Fowler. Mrs. Frank Greer, of Nashville, is out here visiting her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Buchanan. Rev. Glass, the travelling agent for McBrady's firm, spent the week end here with Mrs. Will Whyte. Rev. Glass selected Miss Myrtle Bonner as town agent. Mrs. Roscoe Bryson is reported quite ill this week.

COLUMBIA NOTES.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wingfield entertained at their home on Wednesday evening, December 11th, in honor of Mr. Frank Thorne, of Chicago, Ill. A delightful four-course menu was served. Those who enjoyed the hospitality were: Mr. Frank Thorne, Mrs. W. H. Ogletoun, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Thompson, Mrs. A. P. Crews and Mr. T. H. Byrdson.

TULLAHOMA NOTES.

The Mt. Zion Baptist Sunday-School under the leadership of Mr. Wm. Jenkins is making extensive preparations for the fifth Sunday. A Sunday-school free dinner will be given at the Immaculate Hall. Each member of the church and friends are asked to bring a basket for the benefit of the poor and orphan children's dinner on that day. Mrs. Martha Shoffner was able to fill her place in church last Sunday. Large preparations are being made for the celebration that will begin under the instruction of Rev. J. S. Swift, December 27th, closing December 30th with a great sermon by Rev. Dr. C. H. Clark, of the Mt. Olive Baptist Church, Nashville, Tenn. Mrs. Birdie Jenkins and daughter, Janie Mal, will spend the holidays with her mother's sister in Chattanooga. They will visit South Pittsburg before returning home. Mrs. Bettie Hunt was able to fill her place in church last Sunday. Mrs. Ella Alexander, who has been the guest of Mrs. Bettie Hunt, on Washington street, returned to Nashville last Monday. Mr. Son Jones, of Winchester, is a live wire among the young ladies this week. The rally at the A. M. E. Church on last Sunday was quite a success. Wm. Jenkins preached at 3:30 to a large and appreciative audience, and Rev. Young, of Stephenson, Ala., preached at 7:30 o'clock. Rev. N. B. Morton raised $75 in this rally. This will be the last rally until spring. The many friends of Rev. N. P. Griggs and wife, the former pastor of Fayetteville, Tenn., who is now pastoring a church with a thousand members in Oakland, Cal., 916 Cypress street, are glad to know that both of them are doing fine and are in perfect health. Miss Paralee McGhee has returned from a great pleasure trip in Georgia. Mrs. Ora Medorris was in Shelbyville last week on business. Rev. Wm. Jenkins is arranging for a big Christmas tree on Friday night, December 27th, for the benefit of the old people and little orphan children that can't come to Sunday-school. This tree will be at the public school house and the members of each church are asked to take an active part in the affair and make it a success. Rev. J. S. Swift has prepared a program to be rendered at the Mt. Zion Baptist Church Tuesday night, December 24th. He is assisted by Miss E. M. Martin. Mr. Frank Ramsey visited his farm on last Sunday, near Estill Springs. He was accompanied by Mr. J. H. Holman. Mr. Jeff Ryles is a great fancy among the ladies. He was in town last Saturday smiling as usual. Mr. Jeria Scott has accepted a lucrative position with the Southern Express Company and is now pulling the lines over old "Bill." Mr. Jim Mitchell is preparing to leave Florida December 24th. Mr. Dan Lock and family have moved to their new cottage on Jackson street. Read the Globe and keep up.

PIKEVILLE NOTES.

The health of the people in a general way is good. Mr. Essex Bridgman, who has been sick, is convalescing. The little daughter of Mr. S. T. Robertson, Gallena, is very sick. We hope for her a speedy recovery. The weather is fine for corn gathering and hog killing in which work the most of the farmers are engaged, except a few who are turning land for next year's crop. Our schools are now all closed and we are now talking, lecturing and working in the interest of education for this section of the country. There are upward of a hundred children in this country and the school terms are from three to five months during the year. The school in Pikeville enrolled this fall term 68. The term ended November 29th and these 68 children must stay at home and pick up chips and play with each other until next July or August, and their books at that time will be a new thing to many of them. Three out of this valley in the city schools will have the advantage of those at home, and when their term ends and they come home in May or June they will consider they have no associates and the children at home will feel their inability to cope with them. Again to our business relations. Mr. William Northup is one of our great farmers and peddlers. He has an eye for business in a general way. Any kind of business might be safe in his hands. Mr. James Bridgeman is a farmer of some tact and is through gathering corn. He has several children, the most of them the right age to be in school. Mr. Isham Roddy, a farmer and jobber, is a man of fine qualities and is very anxious about the education of his children. Mr. Henry Panky, a farmer, has just finished gathering corn and has some fine hogs to kill, also several old enough to enter school. We hope the day is not far when the day star of a higher education will rise in Bledso County.

CEMETERY NOTES.

Rev. H. P. Belcher preached two able sermons for his people of Stones River Sunday and Sunday night. Miss Nannie Windrow, formerly of this place, but now residing in Nashville, made a flying trip through here on her way to Murfreesboro, auto riding Sunday. Mr. Joe Harlin is indisposed. Rev. H. P. Belcher was called to his home on account of the illness of his daughter last week. Rev. Belcher stood by her until he could realize her speedy recovery. Mrs. Sallie Smith and little daughter, Lucy Fowler Smith, were the guests of Mrs. James D. Rucker recently. Little Bertha Washington is ill. Master Willie James Orr and little sister, Annie Louise Orr, spent Sunday with Master George W. Haynes. Mr. Anthony Windrow, of Nashville, visited Miss Carrie Sue Clark Sunday. Mrs. Della Harlin spent Sunday evening visiting the sick. Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Orr and little sister, Annie Louise Orr, spent Sunday with Master George W. Haynes. Mr. Anthony Windrow, of Nashville, visited Miss Carrie Sue Clark Sunday. Mrs. Della Harlin spent Sunday visiting the sick. Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Orr left for McVeys to be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Miles recently. Mr. Felix Haynes and children spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. M. A. Haynes. Rev. A. M. Bedford will preach his Christmas sermon on Sunday, December 29th. Everybody is asked to be present. Miss Annie Haynes was the guest of Mrs. Temple King Monday. Mr. Albert Smith made the evening pleasant for Miss Mary I. Aven Sunday. Stones River Sunday-School is preparing for its Christmas tree, which will be given on Wednesday night, December 25th. Everybody is asked to be present with good manners and good behavior. This is the outgoing of the leap year and the girls of this place have won the victory. Several of our girls will get married this Christmas with best wishes and a successful life in the future.

AMONG THE CHURCHES.

The services at Holy Trinity Church on Christmas day will be a celebration of the Holy Communion at 9 o'clock. A new Mass to the key of F will be sung for the first time. The Gradual and Offertory anthems are both of a high order. The public is reminded that Holy Trinity Church belongs to the people of Nashville and are therefore asked to visit the church on Christmas day and all other services of the church. Arrangements are being made by the congregation to feed a certain number of the poor of Nashville during the Christmas holidays.

DEATH OF MR. WM. H. BROWN.

William H. Brown, for a number of years a resident of this city, held in the very highest esteem by both old and young, died at the home of his son, Rev. J. A. Brown, on Stanley street, Thursday morning, December 12th, after an illness of more than a year, having been confined to his bed just one month. While his death had been expected for some time, it came as a shock of those around him. Mr. Brown was born April 4, 1834, in the state of Maryland. He was a gallant soldier in the civil war. The following children survive: Rev. J. A. Brown, pastor of Mt. Zion Baptist Church, of Watertown; Wm. Brown, James Brown, of Cincinnati; G. W. Brown, of Pittsburg; Mrs. Susie Weakley, of Columbus; Thomas H. Brown and Mrs. Grant Perkins, of this city. The funeral was held Sunday morning at the Fairfield Baptist Church. The following friends served as pall bearers: W. W. Southall, S. S. Hughes, Henry Hughes, Richard Overton, H. Willis and Nelson Moore. Interment took place at Mt. Ararat Cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to thank our friends for the many acts of kindness shown us during our father's illness and for the beautiful floral designs in our hour of bereavement.
Rev. Jas. A. Brown, G. W. Brown, Thos. H. Brown, Mrs. Susie Weakley and Mrs. Grant Perkins.

THE FISK CALENDAR FOR 1913.

The "Nashville Fisk Club" has issued a beautiful calendar for 1913 that would adorn any home. These calendars are being offered to the public for a small pittance to aid in the endowment of Fisk University. It is artistically arranged and contains short messages of the former presidents and members of the Faculty and the alumni. On the front page are the pictures of Presidents Cravath, Merrill and Gates. On the following pages are the pictures of members of the faculty and illustrations of the university. Each calendar is tied in the Gold and Blue colors of silk ribbon, and the twelve pages, each of which contains the days of the month and the short messages referred to above, are printed in the university colors, the Gold and Blue. This effort of the Nashville Club is meeting the hearty approval of the people.

THE NASHVILLE INSTITUTE FOR CHRISTIAN WORKERS.

On January 1st, the Nashville Institute for Christian Workers will be opened for school work. The Hoffman Hall property, just west of Fisk University campus, was purchased some months ago by the Interchurch College for the purpose of establishing this school. The property is being repaired and put in readiness for school work.
The purpose of the Nashville Institute is to train men and women for religious and social leadership. It is strictly a professional school. The chief qualifications for admissions to the Institute are that a person be over eighteen years of age, be in good health, have a High School education or its equivalent, and be a member in good standing in some Protestant Church. There is a very large field for such an institution, both because of the need of trained leaders and because there are many young men and women who will find a very attractive field of usefulness open to them as trained Christian workers. Persons who desire to enroll as students should apply to the office of the American Interchurch College, 601 Cedar street.
